Cendrillon, written by Robert D. San Souci and illustrated by Brian Pinkney, is the Caribbean version of the classic tale Cinderella. The narrator of the story is a poor washerwoman who works for Cendrillon's family. She is also the godmother of Cendrillon, chosen by Cendrillon's kind mother before she passed away.

Cendrillon: A Caribbean Cinderella by Robert D. San Souci

Cendrillon: A Caribbean Cinderella tells the story of a woman who receives a magical wand from her dying mother. The wand has a limited amount of magic and can only be used on someone the woman loves. The problem is the woman has no family and therefore no one to love. The lady the woman works for makes the woman the godmother of her daughter.

As a native of the Caribbean this story does not truly reflect the Caribbean people their values, norms and culture. The Caribbean people are predominantly of African ancestry and so are their traditions. If this story were in the 17th when most European Cinderella variants were written then Cendrillon would have been a slave.
