Holes Louis Sachar Summary Chapter

Summary Chapter 1. Camp Green Lake is described. It is no longer a lake because over a hundred years ago the lake dried up and the people who lived around it moved away. Now the lake is a dry and barren land where the temperature is usually about ninety- five degrees. The only place where there is shade is between two trees where there is a hammock.

Chapter 8 In this chapter the omniscient narrator steps briefly out of the story to reflect on curses. After noting some people think curses aren't real, the narrator says some people think yellow-spotted lizards aren't real, either. But "if one bites you, it doesn't make a difference whether you believe in it or not."

Holes Part 1 Chapters 8 9 Summary | Course Hero

This chapter takes us back one hundred and ten years, before Camp Green Lake even existed, and of course well before Stanley was born. At that time, Green Lake actually was a lake, with a lovely, all-American kind of town on its banks.
