In Numen Naturae: The Magician's Wand, herbalist Casandra Johns collects a selection of voices from the plant and magick community navigating the conscious divinity of nature. The scope is part of a larger gnosis to be continued to investigate the relationship and cognition between our herbal allies and the established praxis of archetypal imagery.

Numen Naturae is an exploration of herb, archetype, and image. In The Magician's Wand, authors examine the figure of the Magician in the tarot trump through the lense of archetypal herbalism. From the editor's foreword to the book: "This work is the product of many minds, human and otherwise. It seeks to explore the relationship between image, herb, and archetype.
